Guidelines for applying for the Senior Citizen Fee Exemption

Canadian citizens and Permanent Residents residing in BC who have reached the age of 65 before the first day of classes may be eligible to apply for the Senior Citizen Fee Exemption. The Senior Citizen Fee Exemption is not available for Continuing and Professional Studies, Trades offerings, or cost-recovery programs (including, but not limited to, the Brewing and Brewery Operations program).

Registration for seniors applying for the fee exemption begins each term on the first day of classes.

The following guidelines must be followed in order to receive the tuition exemption:

- proof of age at the time of application must be provided
- a fee paying student is not being displaced
- a tuition exemption has not been approved for same course previously
- registration has not taken place for a course prior to the beginning of the term
- tuition exemptions are limited to one semester-based course (4 credit maximum) per semester, and three courses per academic year

Approval of a Senior Citizen Fee Exemption is only active for one semester. KPU reserves the right to limit the maximum number of senior citizen tuition & fee exemptions.

Senior citizens who wish to ensure registration in a specific course may register and pay in the same manner as a fee paying student, however they will not be eligible to retroactively apply for a tuition exemption.

Seniors applying for the tuition exemption must meet all course prerequisites. Information regarding prerequisites for individual courses can be found in the Course Description section of the University Calendar (kpu.ca/calendar).

All other policies and procedures apply.
